

History Volumes

History of India's must be stopped from limiting to North Indian history or South Indian history. For this purpose Karnataka history has to be written independently. Our history must not only contain stories about kings conquering but should also contain cultural history in it. Writing of history should have a different outlook. There cannot be done at once first all materials of Karnataka history must be available at one place for this purpose Karnataka's history has been published in 7 volumes. Apart from this history encyclopaedia, volumes of Asia, Europe, Africa and America history also published.
