BRIEF SUMMARY OF MY MAJOR WORKS AT KANNADA UNIVERSITY, HAMPI

01. I have been actively involved in the intellectual and physical development of the Hampi Kannada University since I joined as a research Scholar in 1996. I have successfully completed various institutional and personal projects since 1996.
02. Contributed to the oral recording and transcription for the Kannada University's prestigious project 'Tribal Epic Series' and also acted as a member of the editorial board.
03. As a founding coordinator of the Dr. Shamba Joshi Study Centre initiated a 'Research summit', a week long yearly programme for PhD scholars, to train and inculcate knowledge from different disciplines. This programme started in 2002 was long before the UGC made a similar course compulsory to research scholars enrolled for Ph,D.
04. Founding editor of critically acclaimed 'Tribal Studies' journal for three years.
05. Founding Cocoordinator of the first Tribal conference of the Kannada University organised in Ashoki, a place where Halakki Vokkaliga community reside in North Canara. Over 2000 Tribal people participated in this unique event.
06. I prepared project proposal 'Forest and Tribal Folklore of Karnataka' for SAP DRSII programme of UGC and presented successfully in front of the expert committee. As a deputy coordinator I worked for three years for this project. I organised various seminars and workshops under this project.
07. I was the Head of the department of Tribal studies for two years. Organised various special lectures on educational pedagogy and important topics.

08. I have been a deputy registrar and have successfully served as a member of various committees.
09. I have been a coordinator of Dr Rammanohar Lohia Study Centre. I was responsible for producing 4 unique volume on Dr Ram Manohar Lohia to celebrate his birth centenary year in 2012.
10. As the Founding Director of Center for the Studies of traditional knowledge of Tribals and training, conducted five workshops and training camps for young writers, research scholars community representatives. Events and training included indigenous art classes, indigenous farming and knowledge, indigenous dance and performance arts. Through the centre four important research projects have been planned. Also plans are underway to start documenting the living culture of ten selected indigenous communities.
11. As Director of 'Pictorial Encyclopedia of Karnataka Tribes' brought out the first comprehensive recording of tribal people of Karnataka. This project was a joint collaboration between Karnataka Information Department and Kannada University.
