

Department of Tribal Studies
Kannada University, Hampi
Vidyaranya-583276

Department Profile
(2012-13 to 2018-19)

1. Introduction

The University established the Department of Tribal Studies on 01.7.1994 with a view to undertake a comprehensive study of tribal lore and tribal people of Karnataka. Karnataka has three distinct geographical regions: Karavali (coastal), Malenadu (hill region) and Bayaluseeme (plateau). In Karavali and Malenadu we find a large number of tribes and in Bayaluseeme we find a few tribes. Nomadic tribes are also found in Karnataka. The official records mention that in Karnataka we have 50 tribes. But today some of the tribes mentioned in the records are not found anywhere. At the same time we have certain tribes, which are not at all mentioned in the Scheduled Tribes list prepared by the Government of India. The Government has prepared the Scheduled Tribe list based on the studies conducted during the colonial period. This area of studies has been, hence, neglected so far. In this context, the establishment of the Department of Tribal Studies in Kannada University assumes importance.

The Department of Tribal Studies has come into being to shoulder many important responsibilities. One of the primary responsibilities has been to conduct a comprehensive survey of the Tribes. In this context we need to undertake micro study of each community from the economic, social and cultural perspectives in a scientific manner. The following are some of the major projects taken up by the Department, so far:

- 1) Giriseeme-the Tribal village: the buildings are modeled on various tribal hamlets of Karnataka which houses the Department of Tribal Studies.
- 2) Tribal Museum: To narrate and document the changing life of tribals.
- 3) Audio-video documentation: the department has a collection of 242 hours of audio and 80 hours of video documentation containing the Oral epics of various tribes, their rituals, their customs, dance, other art forms and their life styles.
- 4) Tribal Epic Series: Documenting the 13 Tribal epics and publication of 11 epics so far.
- 5) Tribal Studies Series: Four books have been published in this series.
- 6) Budakattu Adhyayana journal: published since 2003 half yearly.
- 7) Pictorial Encyclopedia of Tribes of Karnataka

- 8) Seminar, workshop series: Forest Blossoms and the Concrete Jungle : An Insight into Indian Tribal Studies, Published in 2011
- 9) Classical language Series: Maragu Bhasa (Nomadic tribes Code Dialect) book published in 2012
- 10) Dictionaries Series: गोंडवाना गोंडी शब्दकोश (Gondwana Gondi Dictionary) published in 2017

2. Vision

1. To be a source of knowledge, and documentation centre with regard to Tribal groups of Karnataka
2. To produce intangible indigenous knowledge of the tribal communities of Karnataka
3. To be policy advisor to the Government about the holistic approach necessary for preservation and transformation of tribal lifestyle
4. To coalesce both Social science and humanities perspective in study of tribal groups

3. Mission

1. Video documentation of many of the aspects of tribal life which is fast changing
2. To offer training and sensitization of the officers working with tribal people/related issues
3. To intervene and influence government policies about the tribal population
4. Continue documenting tribal narratives/folklore/knowledge systems

4. Uniqueness of the Department

- 1) The Department has created an interdisciplinary-multidisciplinary forum to study tribals of Karnataka
- 2) The Department through its half-yearly journal is sustaining the discussion and research on Tribal Studies in Kannada
- 3) Development of a unique campus with in campus for the Department
- 4) Making the world stand up and take notice of the oral epics in Kannada
- 5) Being a premier institution of policy consultation regarding issues related to tribals
- 6) One of the few Departments to get UGC SAP in the University

5. Major Programs of the Department

Research Programmes

M Phil and Ph D programmes in Tribal Studies (since 1994)

Post-graduate Diploma Program in Tribal Studies

6. Major contributions of the Department

- 1) Collection of Oral Epics and its publication by the Department- the number of Oral epics in Kannada alone has astonished the national and international scholars

- 2) Establishing and running Tribal Museum
- 3) Audio-video documentation as part of the study of tribals
- 4) Coordinating with State and Central government regarding issues related to tribals
- 5) Pictorial Encyclopedia of Tribes of Karnataka
